

A Play by Shelagh Stephenson
Directed by SUSI WALKER
"Winner of the Laurence Olivier Award for Best New Comedy 2000"

A modern, touching, but very funny comedy about three sisters who meet for their mother's funeral in their childhood home. The mother appears to one of the sisters, helping to dredge up all the tension and conflicts of past family life. The age old tradition of recollecting family stories, bound by love, laughter, anger and tears is still at the centre of this bittersweet life affirming comedy.

NWR Groups from the Warwickshire and West Midlands area met in The Priory Theatre , Kenilworth to see the play .
This was followed by lots of discussion helped by a delicious buffet and glass of wine !

The Priory Theatre is self - funding .
For more info please look at their website www.priorytheatre.co.uk

